“ I have sent up a prayer for my "sister," Lucy. I did not know her personally, but I have known many others like her. Like most elderly, black women, Lucy personifies the courage, love, strength and faith that we carry. What a powerful example she left for her family. May our Lord have mercy on her soul. I thank God for letting us have Lucy for 70 years.##imported-begin##Cee##imported-end##

“ Ms. Coleman:
I have had the honor to share in activities that your mother gave of herself to our community. I would have definitely been present at her homecoming. I deeply sorry for not being at her service. God's everlating blessings to you and your entire family. Your mother's contributions to our society will never be forgotten, including her smile, and generous unending kindness. She certainly had a beautiful heart.##imported-begin##Myrna Jolly##imported-end##

“ I've only known Lucy stokes for a couple of years, having only arrived in DC in 2005. However, I knew her to be committed to the cause of the poor and under-privileged. She was a fighter for a good cause right down to the bitter end. I was checking my e-mail. I had just clicked on the message before the one containing this bad news. In the time that it took the computer to change screens, I noticed the title of the next message and flipped screens right back to my inbox to see if my eyes were deceiving me. Sadly, they were not. I'm sorry to hear read of her passing. I will miss her much.##imported-begin##Eric Sheptock##imported-end##
