“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

*To The Family of Lucy Ann Walker;
May the God of comfort, comfort your family during this very sad time. Losing our love ones to death is not a natural thing though many say that is a part of lifes cycle. God doesn't feel that way as a matter of fact He says death is our enemy. 1Cor 15:26 and the devil has the means to cause it. Heb 2:14. Though this is the case God has promise according to Is 25:8 death will be swallowed up and those who are sleep in death will wake Dan 12:2. So death is a temporary condition. May you find strength and confidence in these thoughts in your time of sorrow.*
