“ To the Talley Familiy I was saddened to learn of the passing of Mom Talley. She gave new meaning to the term "it takes a whole village to raise a child" She was always there to guide us along the right path. She will be missed always, Take comfort in the fact that each of you did all that you could do during her recent illness. I am proud to be one of her daughters.###imported-begin##Ricki Lewis###imported-end##

“ From the daughter who was always like a daughter even before God blessed you with your own. For all the laughs we shared that made your house my second home. For all the things you taught me and the knowledge you instilled -- I truly wanted you to know that you helped enable me to climb life's steepest hills. You are my last Mother who went to sleep to rest. I truly know God only uses the best.

Strength is drawn from those we love, so when God blessed me with a son, there was no choice to make. One of the many things I learned from you is that it is better to give than to take. I never had a problem in speaking what I believed to be the truth, albeit I've learned to do it more appropriately. Nonetheless, all my Moms possessed a feisty spirit. Although I didn't tell you, I think you always knew; I owe you a lot and I "truly" loved you. Though I am going to miss knowing you are here, the things that you taught me from a child I will always hold near and dear. I have tried to pass on to my son, the kinds of things I think he really needs to know when he meets the woman who makes his world glow. I hope I'm here to experience the happiness he'll share when he finds the one who will bring happiness that needs little repair.

I Love You!###imported-begin###Puddin###imported-end##

“ Dear Talley Family,

I can honestly say I understand what all of you are going through. When Ted and Raquel renewed their wedding vows, October 2005, I got a chance to see aunt Lou. Aunt Lou knew me, Brenda, Cathy, and Rita from the day we were born. Although we were not her nieces by blood or marriage, she treated us like we were. Since moving from Virginia in November 1964, a vacation to Virginia was not complete until we had visited aunt Lou. During this sad occassion, I pray that God hold each of you tightly in His arms and give you the strength to endure.

“ I love you Aunt Lou. You were always a kind hearted and lovable person. Family gatherings were so much fun. You never complained about how many people you had to feed. You always made sure everyone was comfortable and had a plate. I know Uncle Lim, Aunt Marion , Uncle Tommy, MaMa, and Daddy, and all of the other family members and friends are welcoming you. May You Rest In Peace. Love Cathy##imported-begin##Cathy R. Charity Butler##imported-end##

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Aunt Lu's passing but happy to know she would now join her precious "Lem" and her Heavenly Father. Aunt Lu was a God-fearing women with a heart of gold that welcomed all into her home with open arms. She would tell you how it was back in her day and how it should be now. I can recall many times she would give us a glimpse into history with stories of the times long before my birth. She had a hearty laugh that could not be mistaken for any other. She was always mindful of birthdays and loved any and all children ? especially the babies. I am so happy for all the memories. This world is missing a woman of great Godly character not often found in these times. I loved her and will miss her greatly.##imported-begin##NIKIA CHAMBERS##imported-end##

“ We will miss Aunt Lou. She was a major part of our family. She helped raise us to be the adults we are today. She will always be with us in spirit. We will never forget the things she taught us and will pass them along to our children. How hearts are filled with sorry during this time of mourning, but with God's help we will get through this and will rejoice in knowing she is with the Lord. Aunt Lou we love you.##imported-begin##Ted & Raquel Peterkin##imported-end##

“ To the entire family of "Aunt Lu" to whom I have very wonderful memories of. Even though I haven't seen Aunt Lu in years, I was still hurt to hear of her passing. However, I'm rejoicing in the fact that she resting with the other saints as she awaits that "great getting up morning". Please know that I share in your lost and that I'm praying for you all. Aunt Lu always made my family feel special because she was a special and unique woman. I thank God that He allowed me to know such a wonderful person.

Love you all!
