

Madeline B. Davis

December 10, 1947 - September 15, 2011

On Thursday, the 15th of September, 2011, our beloved Madeline Belinda Davis departed this earth to ascend to her heavenly home. Madeline, affectionately known as "Blinda", was born in Washington, DC on December 10, 1947. She was the eldest of 10 children, born to the late Robert and Irene Brown. Her brothers Lawrence, Robert and Edmond; and her grandson Dante preceded her in death. Madeline graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar Senior High School, in Washington, DC. She received her Degree from the Washington Technical Institute. She continued her education at American University and Columbia Union College, to name a few. She worked as a Radiologic Technologist for over 35 years at various hospitals in the Washington Metropolitan Area. Madeline's caring heart, gentleness and professionalism made her the "preferred mammographer".

Madeline was a devout Christian who sought and worshiped God wherever she felt he was present. She served on many church committees, usher boards and praise teams. She stood strong on her beliefs and held fast to her faith regardless of whatever obstacles came her way.

She leaves to mourn her husband Otis Davis; her children Benjamin Smith (Regina), Kim Hansherry (Earl), Kellie Manago, Tania Smith (Larry), Tara Davis (Michael), Sade Davis, Eugenia Davis, Valerie Davis (Mark), Marcia Hough and Patricia Dandridge; 17 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; 2

brothers, 4 sisters, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and close friends.
