“ Time changes nothing... Death changes everything!

It's been ten years since I saw your beautiful smile or heard your infectious laugh or received a hug from you.

You are always in my heart and mind.

I miss the sound of your voice, the stories you told, and the glow of your presence. I miss you as much today as I did the day you left.

Time Changes Nothing...Death Changes Everything!

*Marc, I pray you can feel my love.

“ Sitting here listening to our song "Two Occasions" by Babyface and I will forever remember that smile.. You were always a nicest ,respectful and loving person from the day we first met in high school until the last email we sent on February 23, 2012 which I still have.. I know you are smiling down on your family as I am sure your girls are coping daily with the loss of a great dad. I think about you often and thank God for the opportunity to have had you in my life for 25years... Continue to Rest in Paradise.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Dear Family. I'm very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear Marc. The Bible foretells a time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:4). When our loved ones die, we mourn. Jesus told his disciples "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest." He was at rest in death, as though in a deep sleep. (John 11:11-14) Jehovah God created us with the desire to live forever. We die is because of Adam's sinful condition as well as death was passed on to all of his descendants. (Rom 5:12) That sin is like a terrible inherited disease from which no one can escape. Its consequence, death, is a curse. Death is an enemy, not a friend. (1Cor 15:26) How grateful we can be that Jehovah God provided the ransom to rescue us from this dreadful enemy through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ! Read these scriptures anytime you think of Marc; may they console you, because as long as you stay close to God and serve him wholeheartedly, you will see Marc in the Earthly Paradise! (Psalm 37:29; Rev 21:3,4).

“ Eric and I both have fond memories of Mark, since our childhood. Mark used to ride motorcycles with Eric around the Stadium Armory. They would spend all day out there just having a ball. We (Mark, Eric, Addison, Mike, Dereck, Tiffany, Kelly and I) all spent many hours walking 24th, 23rd and Benning Road. We would walk to the corner store, get a snack and then sit on the step laughing at everything that DC has to offer! Really good times. Mark fell over a fence once to help me get a cat out of Addison's backyard. We all laughed rediculously but, Mark was determined to get me that cat! Mark and Eric both ended up working for FAA and had many plans for this summer on those bikes. With an empty space in our hearts and tears in ours eyes, we will always love and miss you terribly. God Bless your family and may peace soon soothe their hearts.

*With our deepest sympathy and love,
Eric and Kim Ware*

“ Ah, Marc....man, there are so many words i could say, stories i could tell, conversations i could share.... above all of that, all i really wish i could have the chance to say would be Thank You. Truly, you were not just a wonderful co-worker, but a great friend. We will all miss you. Namaste, sir.

“ Words can not express the grief I felt when I received word of Marc's passing. We sat side-by-side in the FAA office in Silver Spring for several years and became very good friends. He always greeted me with a cheery "Good Morning Miss Graham" as he rounded the corner and headed to his desk. He always listened to my stories and was a fan of my fun-filled lifestyle. He was a very kind and sincere man and he always treated me with the utmost of respect. I would like to share my sincere condolences with his family and co-workers. Marc, I will miss you... you were a truly a friend that I could rely on... God Bless... Your friend, Eva

“ I worked with Marc for several years before he transferred downtown. He worked with our team in IAP. I was the team lead at that time. Marc was the sweetest man. He had great integrity and team spirit. He would always help me out and take on jobs well beyond his responsibilities. He was gentle in nature and always enjoyed talking and laughing with his friends. Many could see early on, he was enthusiastic about his career and would be "going places". He transferred to FAA headquarters over ten years ago. The group downtown was lucky to get him. He has stayed in touch with many his colleagues in Silver Spring. He collaborated on projects with the groups in Oklahoma and Maryland. As we try to comprehend this profound loss let us remember all the special times we had with Marc. With his passing I am reminded of lyrics to one of my favorite song I'd like to share.

I AM by Nichole Nordeman,

"Life had begun, I was woven and spun,

You let the angels dance around the throne, who can say when,

But they'll dance again, when I am free and finally headed home."

Rest in Peace sweet child of God, Marc

In fond memories, Mary

“ Dearest Marc,
I met you way back in 1992 when we were geography majors with Greg at UDC. We danced in and out of each other's life for 20 years. You found me at the Census Bureau and soon after I followed you and Greg to FAA. You made me laugh hysterically with every conversation and always greeted me with the highest of complements. We became parents around the same time and grew up around the same way. I had the greatest fortune of running into you at Rite Aid on my birthday (March 7) and have long conversation, without ever realizing that you would make that journey into the spirit world two days later. We made a lunch date on April 2. I will make sure I keep that with you. Unfortunately, it will be a quiet one. I am still in shock and you will be missed.
Love, D.

“ I had the pleasure to work with Marc for a few years in Silver Spring and during that time we became friends. We, along with Brian Basileo, would have bowling competitions during lunch. After he went on to another job, we kept in touch and shared in the joy of each others children. He will be missed and my sympathy goes out to his family. Marc touched the lives of so many people that knew and worked with him.
