“ I don't know what to say.... I am still in shock. Marcellus and I fell out of touch on and off for the past 12 years but he always held a special place in my heart. I don't know what happened but I know that you will be missed and I will cherish the memories that I have of us. May you find peace and love with your mother.

I love you.

“ Marcellus and I worked together back in 2004 at Nextel, and in the last year had spoken to one another! I'm shocked it doesn't seem real that he is gone! He would keep me up on the latest music even going back to the old hip hop! He was a good friend and very animated, my heart is saddened!
I will pray for Marcellus and his Family##imported-begin##Candice Hymes##imported-end##

“ Bob,

I am saddened to hear of the loss of your son. A child is one of God's most precious gifts. May your memories strengthen you during this difficult time and always. My prayers are with you and your family.

God bless you,

“ Bob,

I write from Maine to send my fond wishes and prayers. I can only imagine the distress you must feel, if I think of losing my son, who is in his 30s.
Take care.
