

Margaret Harris

June 21, 1927 - November 29, 2020

“I have kept the faith, fought a good fight, and I finished my course.”

On Sunday evening, November 29, 2020, Heaven welcomed an angel, Sister, Margaret Harris, to her heavenly home to live with Jesus. Margaret was born June 21, 1927, to the late Dewey and Myra Lattimore in Spartanburg, SC. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at Brookland AME Church of Chesnee, South Carolina.

Margaret married the love of her life, Preston Martin, on June 6, 1943. After his sudden death in 1950, she relocated her family to Washington, DC, where she was welcomed by her mother and two sisters. After relocating to Washington DC, Margaret served and worshipped in the ministry at John Wesley Zion AME church in Washington, DC. Where she was a faithful servant until her health began to fail. Margaret's employment spanned 3 doctor's offices until she retired to care and love on her grand and great-grandchildren. Her favorite pastimes included spending time with her grandchildren, cooking and sewing. Her family was her greatest joy and treasure, she loved spending time with them.

Margaret leaves to cherish her fond memories: her loving children, Lenora Vauss, Ruth (John) Toney, Keith Harris, Marguerite Johnson, and Anthony (Dawana) Harris-Bey; one son-in-law, Ned Peake; one daughter-in-law, Paulette Martin; sixteen grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Tincy Ricks; one brother-in-law Clarence (Cora) Martin; and a host of nephews, nieces, and a multitude of other family and friends she so loved.
