“ My prayers and condolences are with her granddaughter Chenelle Williams and her family. Also, to the rest of Margarets family. Margaret was a strong willed person. She was very funny and kept me laughing. She didn't bite her tongue. But she was a wonderful person. She would give you the shirt off of her back. My cousin and I shared the same Birthday. She would always try. To call me first to wish me Happy Birthday. If I called her first. Before I could get the words out of my mouth. She would hurry up and say Happy Birthday. My mother, father and brother when I was young would go to visit Margret and Billy a lot. We always had a great time. When I use to go to visit her. When she lived in Silver Spring. She would ways be talking about her granddaughter Shay. That was her nickname. She loved Shay. Her face would light up so much. And when she use to be a nurse at a prison. I was surprised at first. But not really surprised. Because I knew she could handle herself. In such a situation. She loved to dress up. Cousin Margaret you will be missed. You had a strong faith. I know you up there in heaven. Making everyone smile. I love you cousin Margaret. But God loved you even more.

“ Our thoughts and prayers extend to all of you who are faced with the displeasure of losing a loved one to our worst enemy called Death, in these critical situations it's normal to feel helpless not knowing where to turn. However, our heavenly creator has assured us in HEB: 6/11 that it is impossible for him to ever forget us, He also stated in John:5/28/29 that all those in the memorial tombs will here is voice and come out, So GOD is given us all his promise of hope of us being together once again. Meanwhile we can give our thanks to the March family funeral directors: for their perfectional assistance and their heartfelt concern toward the unfortunate friends and families; THANKS.
