“ I offer sincere condolences to the Shaw family. Miss Marie was a woman with true beauty and grace. She radiated gentleness and calm. I don't think I ever heard her raise her voice, even if she was not happy with something or someone she handled it in a calm way without a lot of drama.

Miss Marie was a member of the Senior Ministry for more than 30-years. She and Miss Rachel and Miss Rose were a great team. My Mom worked with them in the ministry.

On that last night, I believe she probably had her stuff packed and ready to bring to the senior soup kitchen. But Jesus had another plan, he had a plan for his angel to feed his flocks in heaven and so he took her home. God took her home in the same way that she had lived her life, he took her home calmly and gently, without stripping her of any of the beauty and grace he had blessed her with. That was his final blessing to her ... and to us also.... even though it is never easy to lose the people we love, it is so much harder to watch them suffer over time with extended illness. But God did not intend that for Miss Marie.

Our hearts are sad too and we will miss her, but we stand on Gods promise and know that he has looked upon Miss Marie and said ... Well done my good and faithful servant - Welcome Home.

Praying that God blesses the entire family with peace and love to help ease your pain and comfort you.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May dear family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away.
