“ I didn't know Mario well but I would chat with him in passing over the last several years. He had a kind spirit and was always very pleasant to be around. My prayers are with his family.

“ I met Mario his first day at the Dept. of Health & Human Services, Health Education Assistance Loan Program. Back then in the 80's everything was done manually and not electronically. So when Mario arrived to the branch I was glad he came because at that time I didn't like doing the travel arrangements for the staff. So he would say whatever you don't like doing I will do for you. He was always glad to be of assistance and I will miss seeing him. RIP, Cheryl Little

“ I've known Mario a long time, he is missed here in the Parklawn Building. We've spent a lot of years talking about our lives and its changes. You've run your race and finished your course, rest well.

My condolences to his family.
