

Marion Bruce Jones

May 31, 1917 - August 4, 2006

Marion Lucelia Bruce Jones born May 31, 1917, to the late John B. and Nancy D. Bruce and siblings Hazel, Edwin, Esther, Phillip, Mabel, Priscilla and Joseph the Bruces of Washington, D.C. went home to be with the Lord on August 4, 2006. At a young age she accepted the Lord in Mount Airy Baptist Church and after reaching adulthood became a devout Catholic. She was very active in her church until age incapacitated her.

Marion Jones was educated in Washington, DC schools and attended John F. Cook, Slater Langston, Terrell Jr. High, Cardozo High School and Cortez Peters Business College. For over thirty-five years, she was a government employee at the Naval Annex in Arlington, Virginia and retired in the late 70's. She was the coordinator of the Cardozo High Alumni and a member of the Old Cotillions.

Marion was the third oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce - often referred to as the second momma - for she cared proudly for the younger sisters and brothers. She was a devoted sister, mother, grandmother and great-grandmom.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted sister, Louise Owens; a loving son, Joseph T. Henry Sandra; four adored grandchildren, David Henry DeeDee, Angela DeGrate Richard, Michael J. Henry and Devlin Henry; four precious great-grandchildren, Loniel, Domonic, Atiana and David Jr. and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

"G G Ma", as she preferred to be called, was the name given as a gift from God in a mother which she displayed , not only to her own, but others. Sister, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother shall be missed but remembered for we shall meet again.
