“ I was so sorry to read about your mother's/grandmother's passing. I worked with "Ms. Epps" on several legal matters about 20 years ago. What I remember most about her were her fierce love for -- and pride in -- her family. In the course of the time we spent together, she told me so very much about all of your accomplishments. Once we completed work on the matter that first brought her to me, she would occasionally call to discuss developments in her life -- and to bring me up to date on how you were all doing. I lost touch with her about 10 years ago, but I remember her with such fondness. May your memories of her similarly be a blessing to you all. Andrea Field
