“ Nette was a beautiful soul and a dear friend to my mother, Amy Alexander and her husband, Tom. Amy was the nurse for Nette's Alzheimers' Respite program in DC, where Nette included Tom as a volunteer after his stroke. Later, Nette welcomed them to live in Silver Spring MD at Springhouse. I have dear memories of this wonderful lady and wish her devoted Maryland nieces and her whole family, peace. My mother Amy passed on November 28, 2016 in Midland Michigan, where she had lived near me for three years. Nette continued to reach out to Amy and just check in on her during that time. She had a way of making us feel loved. -Cathy Yanacek
