“ Taya, Marcus, Family and Friends; All of us at Applied Computing Technologies Inc. want to express our deepest sympathies to you all on the sudden loss of Markell. As a valued member of our ACT family for more than eight years, from May 2002 to February 2011, we all share with you in the enormous sense of loss that you are experiencing at this time. Markell was an outstanding professional and made valuable contributions to our company and our Federal customers. Many of us that had the pleasure of working with Markell and knowing him personally will always have fond memories of him to reflect back on. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all. Very Respectfully The Entire ACT Family.
