“ Marsha,

You were one of my many moms during my formative years at Abt Associates — and what a gift that was.

From our deep, life-solving conversations over lunch at Houlihan's, to Happy Hour @ Zanzibar, and the Ascot... to the moments you pulled me aside when I got out of pocket and gently (or not so gently!) set me straight — you were always there. Always steady. Always pouring into me.

Those conversations alone could have been a podcast.

Thank you for the years of laughter.

Thank you for the wisdom.

Thank you for the protection.

And I will absolutely keep our secret — the extra spring noodle soup packets and hot cocoa hidden in our offices. We could always count on each other for a warm cup and a safe space.

Blessings to your family. You will be deeply missed — especially at our future Abt Reunion cookouts.

With love and gratitude always. 🧡

“ To the Strother-Gay family:

We had the opportunity to meet and work with Marsha on several occasions, and she was always caring and thoughtful. Wishing you and your family strength and peace. May hope find its way to your heart.

We send our condolences to you on your loss.
