“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ To my Nana...my memories are few, but I can recall sitting in your apartment getting ready to chow down on some good food; I can recall sitting in your kitchen floor with my cousins Tracey and Carlton and you telling us how cute we were; I can always recall you finding my Daddy and telling him how much I needed him; but most of all, I can remember the hug you gave me after not seeing me in so long. Nana, I don't need anything more than that. I know you loved me and so many other people whom you took care of so graciously. I was saddened to hear you were alone when you left this place, but in my heart I know you weren't alone. You were with your Almighty Father who has carried you home to be treated like the Queen you are. I will miss you dearly. Kiss my Daddy and Mom for me. I love you Nana! :o(

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
