“ Please accept my heartfelt expression of sympathy at this time of great loss.

I read of Mary Young's death in the Washington Post and I was so sad to read of it.

Words are so difficult at times like this. I hope that you may derive comfort from Jesus words at John 5:28,29 when he speaks of a resurrection of our dear loved ones in the near future. This will be a time of great joy when we may embrace our dear loved ones again. And, at this time Jehovah God will have made the earth a paradise and "the righteous themselves will possess the earth and reside forever upon it." Psalm 37:9-11

And in the near future God will wipe out all tears, pain, and suffering - even death Revelation 21:3,4. What joy for mankind!

Again, I am so sorry for your loss and I hope that these scriptures bring you comfort at this time.

Most sincerely,

Mary Ann Williams

“ My sincere and deepest sympathy is extended to you at the loss of your mother. No doubt you will remember her for the special things she did for and with you while you were growing up. Mothers always have a place in our hearts but with her passing you know that there will be an empty void in life as she is no longer here. Take comfort in the memories you cherish about her, her smiles, the joys, the sad things along with the good things that you shared while she was alive. Friends and family are a source of encouragement during this difficult time and may reach out to help in the only way they know how. Please accept such help as a token of their deep concern for you. Know that God cares for you and is concerned about your well being during this difficult time for you. 1 Peter 5:6,7 Share your thoughts, feelings, your concerns with him in prayer. He will listen. He has already gone a step further in aiding those who have fallen asleep in death by providing his son as a means for hope. John 3:16 For God loved the world so much that he gave his only begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life. Those who have fallen a sleep in death can look forward to a resurrection if it be his will. John 5:28,29 Jesus stated in this verse the following: Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection. What a happy time this will be! In the near future gone will be things such as death that mar the joy in life. Revelation 21:3,4 states, “Look the tent of God is with mankind and he will reside with them and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. He will wipe the tears of all and death, mourning and outcry will be done away with forever. Yes very soon Jesus by God’s power will do away with death once for all. 1 Corinthians 15:26 Then the righteous will possess the earth and enjoy life everlasting in peace with no more loss of loved ones. Until then may you take comfort in the peace that only God can give. May it guide you and lead you to place of contentment with hope. The “Hearer of Prayer” is near to those broken at heart and he is there for you too! Psalm 65:2 Let his word comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time. May Peter’s conviction be yours when he says, “Blessed be
