“ From Billy Baker:

Mary provided what I call a "safe house" for me in some very turbulent times for me. She was NEVER judgmental and just tried to be sure that I was safe. Her laughter and smile were comforting. I called her front porch "Porch #2" and man did we have some good times on that porch playing cards and just talking with my crew. She lived her life honestly and enjoyed it. She also advised me when my thinking was just a bit cloudy (which was most of the time in those days) :). She raised a wonderful family that I and my wife consider our extended family. She will certainly be missed but she will live on in our hearts forever. When I think of her it reminds me of a song by Tina Turner; "Something Beautiful Remains". WELL DONE GOD'S GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. Glad you are at peace and with our MASTER.
