“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ So sorry that you lost your dear Mary in death. May God bless you and keep you close in his loving embrace. One day you have the wonderful hope of seeing Mary again, and she will never be sick or ever die anymore. Let God comfort you as only he can and wipe away your tears of sorrow. Trust in him and put faith in his promises of everlasting life, because his word never fails. Read such comforting scriptures as found at Rev 21:4 which says, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Only he has the power to restore life back to those who have died, and it is his will that all those who have died in his memory will come back to life. John 5:25-29. May the wonderful promise of the resurrection comfort you greatly in the days ahead.

“ With deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Mary will be greatly missed by her friends, members of the BNAGWDCA/ NBNA and nursing colleagues. She was always a "ray of sunshine" to everyone who met her. I know you loved her but God loved her best and called his faithful servant home. R.I.P.

*Mary was one of my life long friends; we met in nursing school in 1959. Since that time we have been a part of each others' lives sharing the joys and sorrows of life. We always lived within a 7 mile area of each other, attended the same church, knew most of the same people and enjoyed being friends.
I will miss talking to her on the phone, giggling and having a big laugh, I loved her like a sister, but God loved her more. I will not see my friend again in this life but I look forward to saying, ' Hey Mary' when we meet again.
I offer my heartfelt condolences to her son, Ernest, and his wife Marcia and all of her sisters and other relatives. Mary's memories will sustain you in the months and years to come.
A loving friend,

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.
