“ I will never forget the day I met Morrisey. I was newly hired and the day I interviewed for the job Morrisey was on leave. She came to my desk to meet me and offer advice about the job. I immediately told her that she was not my supervisor and therefore could not instruct me on job performance. Imagine my chargin when she informed me that she was the manager for that division. She and I shared many laughs about that day. That is the kind of person she was. She was full of love and joy and she shared that love with all whose lives she impacted. She has earned her rest and is now in heaven continuing to let her light shine and givine love to everyone. Phillip, I will continue to keep you and your family in my prayers.##imported-begin##Lula M. Simon##imported-end##
