“ To the Neal family, my deepest sympathy goes out to you all. I to have felt the pain of death. I have lost a Mother, Father and a special baby sister. What has helped me is going to God in prayer. Pouring out my heart as you will do also.

He listens to our prayers and welcomes them. At 1 Thessalonians it tells us to pray constantly. The lost of a loved one is never easy to deal with. Please know you are not alone. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mother Mary was that straight up no chaser, keep it real, wise and experienced female every woman needs in her life. She was also classy and kind and generous. And I have many memories of her laughing and being so funny! She was a mentor of mine. I'll miss her.

Love to the Neal Family.

“ Dear Family,

I loved Mary, as you all do and she will be surly missed. I wish that I had spent more time with her. Sorry I may not be able to attend her service because of uncontrolled circumstances, but my prayers are with you.

A Dear Friend,

Elizabeth Hill
