“ Mary was just like my grandmother I will always love u

“ My fondest memory of Ms. Mary Lucille was on my wedding day when I married her grandson Charles Vaughn. She was captured on videotape sending Charles and I well wishes and while doing so, she leaned back to one of her daughters and asked, "what's the child's name" (meaning me). She's too sweet and unintentional for me to be offended but it was hilarious even though she meant well. We will miss her dearly! The love that her children showered upon her was truly amazing to see and my prayers are with you all in this fragile time. God bless!
