“ Grandma, you were there even when I couldn't see you. The light of your love reached me from so many miles away. Anytime I needed a hug I'd just close my eyes and think of you. For all the things we missed, our love endured through the years. I am so glad I got the chance to be your oldest Grand...

With all the Love in My Heart,

“ God saw you getting weary but there was things that God still had to do. Only He can condition and prepare your heart, for that glorious journey home. He had to rid you of that broken worldly flesh, for the flesh does not fit the crowns that are awaiting you Mommie. I am told I won't know you, for we all will be changed. I will just look for the one that changes crowns most often!!! You are truly in His keeping care. Love always Patti###imported-begin##patti richardson###imported-end##

“ Dear Family,
I saw your loved ones tribute in the Pok Journal this morning and was awed that you quoted that wonderful scripture first in her obituary. I am also a believer and I know she is with our Lord as we speak. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ "Nobody can do for little children what grandparents do. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children." ~ Alex Haley

*Grandma,
Everything I am started with you, and I am so honored to be your granddaughter. I know that anytime I want to see you I can look into my heart. You gave me the greatest gift a person could ask for, you always believed in me and I feel you smiling upon me now, just as you did before. I love you always...##imported-begin##Lauren Pruitt##imported-end##*
