“ I remember last year me and Matthew were always the first on the afternoon bus and we would acknowledge each other and sit across from each other. I don't know the young lady he always helped on the morning bus this year as she entered 9th grade but as he did I could only look through the window and smile to see that kindness still exist and that his was one of a kind.

“ To the Aiken Family,

I am soooooo sorry for your loss, words do not make sense right now but please know I hold you all close to my heart and in my prayers. I keep thinking back to the day I was bragging to Matthew and Ashten about how easy it was to take down the pool if you know what your doing, right after I said that I fell into the pool head first, fully dressed. The three of us laughed so loud, everyone came outside to see what was going on. I will remember that day forever. Please call if there is anything I can help with.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ To the Aiken family and friends,
I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Matthew. It is my hope that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4), continue to sustain you during this difficult time. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that tells us of a time when there will be no more sickness and death and when our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death will be restored to perfect life in a paradise on earth. Until that time, continue pray for strength and look to God's word for comfort and hope. With deepest sympathy.

He got me interested in anime this year at the library and gave me suggestions now I'm officially an anime freak. He will never be forgotten in my eyes.
