

Mattie P. Hall

March 17, 1952 - October 2, 2016

Farewells are always sad, however, to know that our loved one has gone to be with God is our comfort. The earthly life of Mattie Pandoris Hall ended on Sunday, October 2, 2016 at United Medical Center in Washington, DC.

Pandoris, "as she was fondly called" was born the youngest of ten children to the late Susan James Hall and John Livingston Hall in Duplin County, Rose Hill, North Carolina on March 17, 1952.

As a youth, Pandoris attended New Bethel AME Church of Rose Hill, NC. Later in life, she united with Allen Chapel AME Church in Washington, DC.

Pandoris attended the Public Schools of Duplin County and graduated from Union Senior High School, Clinton, NC. She also attended the University of the District of Columbia. She was employed by the DC School System for more than 20 years. She also worked as a security guard officer for the DC Housing Authority as long as her health permitted.

Today we feel a very deep loss, but we realize that God is too wise to make a mistake. So we are consoled by loving memories and humbly submit to God's will.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: eight siblings, Mr. James Hall

(LaRue) of Clinton, NC, Mrs. Helen Brinson, of Washington, DC, Mrs. Rosie Mathis of Seat Pleasant, MD, Dr. Susan Ruffin (Tommy) of Jacksonville, FL, Mr. George Hall (Doris) of Ft. Washington, MD, Mrs. Stella Huffin (William) of Fayetteville, NC, Mr. William Hall (Alvera) of Burlington , NC and Mr. Willie Ray Hall of Ft. Washington, MD, nieces, nephews and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ Although our lives are like the morning fog—we’re here a little while, then we are no more. HOPE remains! For believers, God tells us that because of Christ’s resurrection and HIS victory over death the believer’s death is simply a door that opens into the very presence of the Lord! Here are the words of Jesus... “I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in ME will live even if he dies, and everyone who lives and believes in ME will never die.” [John 11:25-26] To the Hall family, please accept my heartfelt condolences in the loss of Pandoris!
