“ To Comfort you in your time of Bereavement. Kind words can say so little of what is in the heart.

It's hard to know quite what to say to ease the grief you bear, but please accept these heartfelt thoughts and know that others care.

“ *In Sympathy asy say good-bye
When the Father says, "Come home", and opens wide the door, we're sad because we cannot see our loved ones anymore, and yet we know, beyond that door, they're in a glorious place where everything is perfect, where they see the savior's face, and He will send His spirit down to soothe each grieving heart until we join our loved ones, home at last, no more to part.##imported-

“ On January 17, 2007 God picked a beautiful flower for his garden, Mattie Virginia Royster. Mrs. Royster was a lovely lady, her beautifut smiles will be greatly missed.

With deepest sympathy.
