“ To the family of my dear friend Mr. Clarke I extend my condolences. As a work-study employee from Howard University at Banneker Recreation Center during the mid60's, I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Clarke. He became a fatherfigurefriend and took me under his broad wings. Throughout my evolution since, I have always followed his example of treating young people with whom I come into contact with the same care and respect that Mr. Clarke extended to me. He loved his daughters and was so proud of you both that he literally BEAMED whenever he spoke of you, and he was as amazed at your accomplishments as your audiences. I must say that I feel like you are my sisters although we've never had the opportunity to meet. I regret our loss; but Boy, did he show us how to live!
