

Measia D. Nicolas

May 6, 2001 - September 5, 2025

Measia Donnella Nicolas better known as Meme was born on May 6, 2001 in the District of Columbia. Meme was born to Lolita Pixley and Sergio Nicolas. Meme enjoyed drawing, spending time with family, traveling, driving and road trips and she loved fashion design. She attended Freestate Military Challenge Academy where she received her diploma. At the age of eight-years old she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She regularly attended church services at Restoration Outreach Ministries, Bishop Nathaniel Robinson, Pastor. Meme was employed for a number of years part-time working with the family assisted-living business, The Davis' House of Love.

Meme is survived by her son, Emerion, her child's father, Wallace Dews, her mother Lolita Pixley, her loving grandparents Regina & James Davis; two sisters (LaTia & Jasmine); one brother (Marquis); five aunts (Samantha Bell, Theresa Bell, K. Davis, Veronica "Tina" Pixley, Vershonia Pixley); eight uncles (Billy Davis, Roland Clarke, Arthur, Bernard, Donald & Ronald Bell, Vernon Davis & Antonio Faison); her cousin, hero, big sister and someone she could look up to and depend on and talk to on the phone for hours about anything ...Dawnetta "Dee-Dee" Bell; and a host of relatives and friends.
