

Meloni Joi O'Brien

April 7, 2007

Meloni Joi O'Brien, Age 23 departed on Saturday, April 7, 2007 after a tragic car accident.

Graduated from Crockett Technical High School in Detroit, MI where she majored in physical therapy. She was crowned Miss Michigan Teen All American in 1999 and was a semi-finalist in the 2001 Miss Teen USA Pageant. She was a 2006 graduate of Fisk University, Nashville, TN with a Bachelor of Arts in History. Meloni will be greatly missed by her loving family and friends. Survived by her mother, Brenda "Kandi" Gibson-Smith and her stepfather, Freeman Smith, Greensboro, NC; father, Melvin O'Brien, Baltimore, MD.; sisters, Sydni and Randi Smith, Greensboro, NC, and Donica Butler, Landover, MD; grandmother, Frances Shirley O'Brien, Suitland, MD; step-grandparents, Freeman and Linda Smith, Monroe, LA; aunts; uncles; cousins and friends.

To send a lasting tribute or condolences to the O'Brien family, please sign the Online Guestbook below. Click "Sign Guestbook".

Tribute Wall

“ Meloni Joi O'Brien

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ Kandi and Freeman Sydni and Randi, I will keep all of you in my deepest prayers only GOD can comfort you and make you know that your going to make it through this. I LOVE YOU GUYS , and I will continue to pray for all of you!!!Because I know I'm blessed and so are you!!!##imported-begin##LaShon Stoudemire##imported-end##

April 18, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Mel, will always have a place in my heart, I can hear her saying in her sweet soft voice, "Oh Grandma Linda". May each of us touch lives as she did in such a short time. Mel is with God and the angles! Will you see her again, I will!##imported-begin##Grandma Linda##imported-end##

April 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM