Melvin resided in the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area Laurel, Maryland and worked as a Farm Manager at the University of the District of Columbia. He loved fishing and enjoyed watching movies on his big screen. Melvin was a very private and laid-back individual who always enjoyed life to the fullest. He had a heart of gold! Melvin was the type of individual that celebrated his life without any regrets. He had a sense of humor and the gift of just being himself.

Those cherishing memories of him include his daughters, Raynetta Neco Cross, Upper Marlboro, MD and Carla Harvey, Atlanta, GA; sons, Andre Cross, Fredericksburg, VA and Gregory Burch, Bladensburg, MD; special friend, Kathleen Hunt, Bladensburg, MD; one granddaughter, Briana Harvey, Atlanta, GA; two brothers, Ulysses Cross, Jr., Albany, GA and Curtis Cross Deborah, Detroit, MI; five sisters, Bernice Morgan, New Mexico, MX, Dorothy R. Campbell, Houston, TX, Verma J. Pitts Clarence, Miami, FL, Mary Gladden James, Charlotte, NC and Rose Carr Zebedee, Detroit, MI and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Melvin was loved by ALL who crossed his path. He was truly one of God's angels.

?How you live while you?re in this world is of the utmost importance in determining where you?ll reside once you leave here.?
