“ Known the family for more than 50 years. Papa Dickson served as the assistant scoutmaster with scoutmaster, Herbert Smith, for Troop 320 at Metropolitan A.M.E. where Antjuan & I were scouts. Mama Dickson sung with me with The Metro-Aires for over 45 years. She is a leaf that has fallen from the tree of life only to be scooped up by God to be transformed and transplanted to bloom in The Master's Bouquet, a Masterpiece that has now received the Master's Peace. Rest in eternal peace.
