“ Our condolences and prayers go out to Brenda, the girls and the grandkids. Michael was truly a great neighbor, always had a big smile on his face and positive attitude. Even though he was going through his illness, he was always in great spirit and encouraging to me when I was ill as well. He is truly going to be missed, but his memories will last forever.

“ Those we love leave us gifts in the form of memories that no one can take away. Wisdom that we can still recall. These are the things that we will cherish forever. May the family continue to look to Almighty God for comfort during this most stressful time since "He is close to the brokenhearted. He saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18. My condolence to you.

“ Hello I want to give the family my deepest condolences and to also let you know that the last enemy death will be no more as found in God's word the Bible in Rev 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
I hope that this gives you comfort
