“ My condolences to the family and friends of Michael. May your wonderful memories of good times shared with him over the years help you to cope with his loss. Nothing touches us like losing a loved one, and I know that words of comfort can only do so much. But keep in mind the wonderful promises of God who promises us an end to all sickness, violence, pain, and death. One day even the memory of the sorrow we experienced in this life will be a thing of the past, when we can see the dear faces of the of those we have lost over the years. But God promises a healing for us through his Son Jesus. As he himself said many centuries ago: "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." John 10:10. One day we will see the fulfillment of that promise, because Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8. May you be comforted by the sure hope of the resurrection. Acts 24"15
