A TRIBUTE TO THE LIFE OF MICHAEL “TREMAINE” SMALLWOOD

Quietly the angels came and gave “Tremaine” his wings and the peace that he had been searching for... he left his indelible spirit on the lives of family, friends and all whom he encountered.

On February 15, 1984, Michael Edwin and Ann Denson welcomed their only child into the world.

“Tremaine” was born in Washington, DC. While resting at his home in Hyattsville, MD he departed peacefully on Sunday, April 30, 2023, with the love of his life, Nyjah, at his side.

He was educated in the Smithfield, Virginia, District of Columbia and Prince George’s County Public Schools. He was a devoted father to his children, who loved him dearly, and he enjoyed spending time with them and making birthdays special celebrations, in addition to, sharing his unique sense of humor and his love for “playing the dozens”; he enjoyed studying Information Technology and watching and/or reading anything related to science fiction.

“Tremaine” was preceded in death by his grandparents: John Eddie Smallwood, Berneice and Sylvanious Denson, Sr. The family is left to celebrate Tremaine’s life and home going, which include his surviving children: Myon, Davier, Nimore, Malyah, and Noelle; devoted girlfriend Nyjah Ross; loving grandmother, Dorothy Smallwood; devoted mothers and father: Ann Denson; Michael Smallwood and Bonus Mom Melanie Smallwood; Siblings: Chanda (Candy), Joshua and, Jeremie. In addition, he leaves to mourn his death, two Uncles: John and Anthony Smallwood; three Aunts: Verdelle Butler, Sylvia Batten and Catherine Lewis; two nieces: Khailen and Amare; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

The legacy he leaves will be forever remembered and treasured by those that he loved.
