“ Seems like I’ve known You (Priest) all my life. Truth is, most memorable to me and our most significant place of origin for our relationship was when I first met you at Congress Hgts. Rec/Playground where I was on the basketball court and you were watching me play. As I remember, you looked at me playing from where you were outside of the gates surrounding the courts and said to me, “You’re sorry!”. 😂

.....fast forward that was the beginning of a caring, loving Brotherhood that lasted in spite of our not being in contact, separation due to our both going away to college, distance in our areas of residence or places of our individual socializing, personal illness, etc., never for hard feelings or any bad blood between us, just circumstances out of either our control. However whenever we connected it was as though we’d never lost relationship and had only to get updated on our life occurrences and current life affairs. Can’t put into words how much I’ll miss You, our recurring catching up on things and the laughter we’d shared throughout the years. I’ll never forget you my beloved Lil’ Brother, especially whenever I’m watching basketball. I’ll forever be reminded of You, how much we once loved the game of basketball and our connecting through it, how good you’d gotten and how right you were about how sorry a basketball player I really was 😂😂😂😂😂😂😂😂

Love You forever and always Micheal “Priest” Smith 🙏

In Brotherhood and Brotherly Love always 🙏

ME

Mike will be missed so much. His smile would light up a room and always made you feel special. I recall during your wedding during a hurricane you all took that with so much positivity. You made a mark in this world that can never Be erased. Until we see you again my brother.

In Loving Memory of Michael Chett Smith. As you transition to your “New Heavenly Home”, we will always remember all the wonderful experiences that we’ve shared vacationing in Deep Creek, Solomons Island, Rehoboth Beach and many other “Home Away” locations. You were truly our “brother from another mother” that we could always count on to greet us with a smile, a hug and a bunch of good stories to make us laugh. We will miss you. Praying that when It is our turn to transition from this life, you will be there to greet us with your welcoming smile. From Pat & Dennis Higginbotham
