“ No human knows the hour of time of any day when your name will be called to exit this earth we walk upon.

To My darling loved one:

I can't sleep because you're on my mind

I'm grateful to GOD for our shared time

You taught me things doing your time here

You told me things only I could hear

We laughed we played we argued and loved

Now your spirit has returned to GOD above

You'll be missed even though we were apart

My love for you my niece will rest in my heart

Our last talk in October this year we cried

It was then You told me; Aunty I'm tired

I held on to what you gave me since 1979

Forty four years later it will always be mine

Girl I will live and continue to soar

And I will continue into others lives to pour

My life sometimes seems hard to bear

Guess what, I will see you when I get there

I'm going to sign off now it's getting deep

Our subway ride to work and falling to sleep

You with your briefcase looking real smooth

I in my nurses uniform & white nurses shoes

From MD to Texas and back to MD for me

Yet when I hit VA I couldn't return to see

What if anything I could have become

So I stayed here and made it home...

In loving memory of my Matriarch niece

May your soul "REST IN PEACE"

In loving memory to you from Aunt Telzia 12/5/'23
