“ My prayers to the Christian family. Find your strength in the love she had for you. When things seem to overwhelm you my her laughter break the pain. When it seem cold and alone, hold on the memories & some Stewed Tomatoes to warm your soul.

“ The older I get. I see her in my face, how I walk, and what I sometimes say. Until you wake up mama. I love you more than you ever knew.

“ Mildred my friend was a unique loving person, and ever so kind and gentle soul. I first met my friend in 1984 while driving truck hauling from the DC Waste water plant where she was operating the scales weighing trucks that were Rady to leave out of the gate as I thought I was ready to do one evening to call it a day of work. I pulled Ono the scale, and was over weight, and was going to go ahead out the gate anyway until Mildred said you better go back around to the tank and takes one of that load off to be safer on the highway so I did, and came back and still had a little to much on, but she said okay I'll let you go with that, and want say anything about it, but from now on stay closer to the legal weight okay. I said okay and went on out the gate. Mildred was very good to me family, and I know you all know that too. I love you'll, but God loves you first and best. If there is anything at all I can help or be of service going forward all need is to know sisters and brother, andI am doing it okay. With the Love of Jesus Christ Minister William Daniel/Pete

“ Bev, I am so, so sorry for your lose. I remember your Mom as a quiet very loving down to earth lady who enjoyed and cared about her family. Because of Covid-19 we couldn't visit as much but we will have found memories of her from the times we did visit the family during the summertime.

“ God bless you Christian family and relatives. Ms. Christian was always very kind to me. She trained me when I first began working with the Antioch Sunday school children. She loved the babies and they loved her. She was truly a worker for the Lord and her love showed in her work.

“ I’m a talker, but I cannot express my feelings. My mother was so so proud of her children. She adores her grands and great grandson. She was so easy going. She never wanted to be a bother, but she KNEW how much her girls and son loved her. She worked so much early in our lives, it became hard to catch up the years. She would tell me, “they do so much for me now, I don’t want to bother them”, speaking of Bev and Val. She called us her “GLADIATOR GIRLS”. It’s wonderful to know that your mom is proud of you. It’s also wonderful to know that you are loved. Mom we desperately miss you. Rest until you hear the voice of Jesus telling you to wake up. I will miss our morning talks. Tommie
