“Miss Me But Let Me Go”

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.

Lovingly Submitted by the Family

“ John 5:28, 29 "do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his(Jesus) voice and come out". Revelations 21:4 " and he will wipe out every tears from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Jehovah God knows all about grief and pain of loosing a loved one when his son Jesus Christ died. So he promises us in his word the Bible of future blessings his righteous ones will receive of a ressurection of our loved ones as well as death being done away with. I encourage the family and friends of Mildred to read these scriptures with their personal copy of God's word the Bible and meditate on Jehovah's lovinf kindness.
