

Mildred D. Wilson

January 1, 1935 - November 20, 2013

Departed this life on Wednesday, November 20, 2013. She is survived by her soul mate Mr. Ellie Sanes; and her five children, Patricia Sanes, Sylvia Bullock, Kevin Vann, Jacqueline Williamson and Rhonda Pearson; and a host of other family members.

Cemetery Details

Heritage Cemetery

Waldorf, MD

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 26. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Ebenezer Ame Church (Original Sanctuary)
7806 Allentown Road
Fort Washington, MD

Service

NOV 26. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

Ebenezer Ame Church (Original Sanctuary)
7806 Allentown Road
Fort Washington, MD

Tribute Wall

“ Mildred D. Wilson

---

October 23, 2023 at 08:15 AM

“ I will always hear my grandmother tell me that i need to get rid of thoses cars out there, from the first day to the last. She said i didnt need but one good car and i said why do she have all those shoes and purses in the closet but she never answered that lol. She would always tell me how she worked three jobs when she was young and i dont how it feels to be tired. I will never forget when i was younger and started fussing she would drive me crazy by saying the same thing over and over as if i didnt hear her the first fifteen times. She made me feel as if i couldn't never do any wrong in her eye and i think all the other grandkids and great grandkids think the same. I think of her everyday and will never forget her. She made our family a whole with her gone is a major piece of the puzzle missing.

---

Chris Cobb Wilson Sr. - December 10, 2013 at 09:19 AM

JW

“ Being that I'm the youngest granddaughter and only getting to spend 22 years with my grandmother I feel like I was cheated on time, but no amount of time would have ever been enough. I'm thankful for the time we spent together and the memories that we shared. One of my most cherished memories of you simply hearing you say, "gal."

Even though you called everyone gal it was special. Whenever we spoke I'd always ask you if you knew who I was. You would laugh and respond, "yeah gal, Jaime." Then I'd say, I just wanted to make sure you didn't think I was Sheena," and you would laugh, then say, "gone gal." You often said those two lines to me because I'd always say something crazy and all you could do was laugh.

You made sure you and Granddaddy were there to celebrate every major achievement in my life thus far and told me how proud you were of me. My star picture is up on your piano and I didn't even know you guys had one. I think you both did these little things because you knew how special they made me feel.

Every year you would call to wish me a Happy Birthday and say, "grandma loves you. Then two weeks later I'd be calling you at midnight to do the same and wish you a Happy New Year! We'd talk for a moment I'd ask you what you were doing and say something crazy, and you would laugh and drop your famous line. It'll be one month since you left us when my birthday comes this year. Knowing this year that our calls won't happen hurts and takes the excitement out of everything, but I know what you would say and that gives me some comfort. Even as I cry and write my memory I hear you saying, "gone gal, you ought to stop."

So I will end with this, I love you grandma Mildred. As I grow I realize more and more of how much you did for us all. I appreciate your sacrifice and selflessness that directly impacted my life. You showed us all strength and perseverance. While teaching us to be independent, charismatic and loving. You made us a family. Thank you. I will miss you but I will never let you go. You're part of me, part of us all. One of the best parts. Until I see you again, know that I love you grandma.

---

Jaime Williamson - December 07, 2013 at 12:34 PM

Chris
Wilson

“ I remember when I use to stay the weekend at my grandmother house and watch movies and cartoons all day with special milk in my Garfield mug. Aye grandma did you know Todd was a baby fox lol.

---

Chris Wilson - December 05, 2013 at 01:09 PM

“ I remember meeting Grandma for the first time at her house and just being amazed that we both shared a love of magazines! I think her collection was bigger than mine! She had such an infectious laugh, a generous spirit, and a deep love for family. I will miss her warm hugs and funny stories. I look forward to seeing her again.

---

Francoise Sanes - December 04, 2013 at 08:27 PM

SW

“ In watching the video at the service anyone could see just how important family was to Grandma! She made it out to all her grandchildren and great-grand children's bday parties and graduations, weddings, recitals and sporting events. This was big for me, because I live out if state, but grandma was there for every graduation. She stayed sharp from head to toe! Always ready to have fun and enjoy life! There's nothing she wouldn't do for us! From the bottom of my heart I love you! You will truly be missed, until we meet again! I Thank God for you being my Grandma!

---

Sheena Williamson - November 28, 2013 at 08:07 AM

“ I will always remember and love my Gramma. Whatever she had she was always willing to share it. Family was very important to her and she brought alot of us together at cookouts. I am thankful for the time I had to spend with her and know i have a chance to see her again.

---

Larry Sanes - November 26, 2013 at 07:51 AM

MG

“ Some of my favorite memories with my beautiful grandma is seeing her every weekend... The entire family always ended up at The House...for a good meal, lots of laughs, dancing (grandma had her own dance..lol) and she always had the latest juicy stories! She was always put together from head to toe. As I got older I had the privilege to study the Bible with her and I will treasure that forever! I love her, I miss her, and look forward to seeing her again when she awakens from sleep.. "He will call and she will answer"

---

Milelene Gunyon - November 24, 2013 at 10:45 PM

“ We the March Family and Marshall-March Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

---

Marshall-March Funeral Homes - November 23, 2013 at 09:39 AM

JC

I met Mildred in the sixties and we shared some great times at her home and some special memories. Where did the time go? We shared a special Thanksgiving and what a time we had. My mom was living then and we were at her daughter jackies, most of the family was there, thank God for that special time, love juanita,

---

juanita clark - November 26, 2013 at 06:10 PM

SW

Yes Sis it was truly an awesome time! That's why we must create good memories, because in the end that's all we'll have!

---

Sheena Williamson - November 28, 2013 at 08:02 AM