“ Uncle Milton was hospitable to my family whenever we visited the D.C. area. A great tour guide to the Arlington Cemetery explaining the procedures, MLK monument and the various historical sites around the District. He was a wealth of information, I learned a lot from him. I will miss him, his niece Frances.

“ Uncle Milton was an avid reader, historian and great conversationalist. He dearly loved his family, and as the middle brother was the peacemaker. He is already sorely missed but is reunited with the great love of his life, Aunt Gloria. Rest In Peace and rise in glory Uncle Milton.
