“ Cousin Louise brought my mother (her aunt) to my college parent's weekend in the fall of 1977. For one of the activities, we went to the local hiking trail. Louise was dressed immaculately as always. She was a good sport and made the hike in her finest. When she returned to the hotel, she learned that her sister Janette had gone into labor and delivered her daughter Angela!

My cousin Louise always called me on my birthday to wish me well. Also, Louise, Patricia, Jannett, my sister Carolyn would always make sure that on holidays July 4th, Thanksgiving and Xmas we (all the Cox here in DC) would rotate each year their home as a place to celebrate. God bless Louise. Willie and Kim

When I traveled to the DC area for my job, no matter where I stayed in the area cousin Louise would without fail drive to pick me up and take me to dinner. She did this for over 20 years. She was too kind to me. She had a gracious, kind, loving and faithful spirit. I will always miss her and cherish our relationship. Love you always cousin!

“ My memories of Louise are my specific because I've known her all my entire life life: she had an indelible impact on my development because she was in the inner circle of my childhood. She was always so positive; and controlled. I will miss her so very much; : Edgar Allen Cox Jr.
