“ I knew Mrs. Weston from back in the C&P Telephone Company days. I was a clerk in the building maintenance office. She was a classy lady! She was I think the first black Manager for the Public Office at 725-13th Street, N.W. That office used to be so crowded around the first of the month, she used to let me in her office and I could pay my bill in the rear. She also used to let me see the first design telephones and I could get a great deal. She was just a beautiful woman!
