“ My condolences go out to the McKinnon family. I am sorry for your loss and am a stranger to the McKinnon family. I pray that Ms. Myrna Loretta McKinnon is resting peacefully with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. During times of grieving an act of kindness of a blessing. This is my way of passing blessings on and restoring hope.

I've lost a loved one and loss leaves a void and emptiness when left untreated without love, kindness and mercy it can be a dark and trying time alone. I don't want that for you and your family. Remember the good times, funny moments and happy times and let the spirit fill you up. Remember you are not alone. The Lord will never leave you nor forsake you.##imported-begin##Solita Griffis##imported-end##

“ I worked just a couple of doors down the hall from Myrna's computer lab at George Washington Middle School, in Alexandria. We spent many mornings in the hall, talking and supervising energetic middle schoolers as they changed classes. After I retired three years ago, I came back to GWMS as a substitute teacher and spent many days in Myrna's class. Just this month, Myrna asked me to substitute for her so she could have a long weekend; hopefully, with her family. She told me that she had a good year and was looking forward to another one. I am sad that I was not able to say "good-bye" to Myrna, but would like to pass along to her family that her last words to me were words of happiness and satisfaction with her job.

She will be greatly missed.

“ To James and family:

May the Lord bless you and keep you and give you peace and comfort during this time of loss. We hope that the beautiful memories of Myrna will sustain you in your bereavement. You are in your thoughts and prayers. May the promise of the Blessed Hope, and the First Resurrection, when God's trumpet will sound and the dead in Christ will rise buoy your spirits up as we await the glorious day when Jesus will come and death will be swallowed up in victory.

We are praying for you.
