“ Sweetie always smiled. That is what I will remember most about her. And the fact that she imparted so much wisdom on the younger Kappa Sweethearts about life and living in general. REST IN PARADISE Nadine.

“ Nadine and I shared an office together on our first job out of college. We quickly became friends. Her smile and personality brought joy to everyone around her. She was someone that I could always depend on for a good joke and honest opinion. You will be missed.

My God bless the family in this time of sorrow.

*Sincerely,
Mark Dawkins*

“ Sweetie was my roommate at UMES freshman year. We had so much fun together late night laugh. Loved talking about Berry Farms to a girl from B-more. She will definitely be missed.

“ I met Nadine (Sweetie) at UMES. The one thing that Sweetie gave me, and I will forever have, is her smile. Her smile, made me feel like everything was going to be okay. No matter what was going on, if I saw Sweetie and she smiled/laughed, I just automatically started smiling. She was such a beautiful and kind person. RIP Nadine C. Washington.
