

Nathan Bossard

April 6, 1926 - January 15, 2021

Nathan Bossard (USAF-Retired) age 94, died peacefully on January 15, 2021, at Walter Reed from natural causes. Born April 6, 1926, in Cincinnati, Ohio, the youngest of four siblings, he served in the U.S. Army during World War II before joining the Air Force in 1948.

His military career brought him to Andrews AFB in Maryland, where he was introduced by friends to Mary A. Williams whom he married on October 7, 1950. Nathan received the high honor of Airman of the Year at Bolling AFB in 1969. After retiring from the military in 1975, Mr. Bossard began his second career with the D.C. Government Office of Personnel Management, retiring after 20 years.

He was very active in civic and local government and formed a Cincinnati Club for transplants in the Washington area. He was a member of the Washington Masonic Pythagoras Lodge and was an avid golfer.

Mr. Bossard was preceded in death by his eldest son, Nathan Michael. He is survived by his wife of 70 years Mary, sons, Geoffrey (Kimberly-deceased), and Kenneth (Jeanne), daughters, Denise (Noble-deceased), and Jacqueline (Aaron), daughter in law, Marilyn (Michael), along with 17 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandsons, and many nieces, nephews, in-laws, and friends.

Viewing will be Saturday, February 6, 2021, from 10:30-11:30 a.m. at Berean Baptist Church, 924 Madison Street, N.W., D.C. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the memorial service and burial will be private.
