“ To the Family and friends of Mr. Nathaniel Oliver:

Having recently found out of the passing of Mr. Nathaniel Oliver, I was greatly shocked. I will always remember his kindly and benevolent spirit whenever he would offer me "fatherly-and-wisely tenured advice" about life, living, family, God, etc. When I was a substitute teacher at The Armstrong Adult Education Center during the late '70's and '80's, whenever I would venture into the school barbershop, Mr. Oliver would be heartily instructing his students on the importance of good and gracious grooming, tidiness, being business-minded, and treating customers with respect, dignity, and concern.

I will miss seeing him at his barbershop located on North Capital Street, Northeast, but I know deep, deep down in my heart that his reward in paradise was very, very graciously earned and "paid up fully...". Peace be with the Oliver Family forever....
