My sincere condolences to Marc and Arlene. Sorry I couldn't be with you in person but know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I was able to share in the live stream. May Bro. G's soul rest in eternal peace.

“ Bro, G was the godfather to my son. He had your back, he showed and shared love. I spent a few hours during his last season here and it was great. I will miss him. His wife Sis Lynnette would always say, give flowers when your love ones are alive so they can smell the roses. I am glad i did. Bro G and I minister together at National Wesleyan Church, we fellowship together at his home in the Caribbean group, then at Capital Wesleyan Church. He started the free bread ministry, then the free food distribution. He would travel far and wide to collect these items to make sure the Inner City Residents have something to eat. We traveled together to yearly conferences, he was with me when I made my maiden voyage across the Bay Bridge. Thank you Bro G for these memories. You will be missed. I love you. your Daughter in Christ, Donna Henry,
