“ On behalf of the Briscoe Family, we thank all of you for the many ways you have supported us during this season of our lives! We knew Oceola as our wife/mother/grandmother/ great grandmother/sister/ auntie/sister-in-law/coworker/friend/ church officer/devoted community servant/ and so much more! She was one of the brightest lights walking on this side of Heaven and we are thankful we had the opportunity to share space, love and life with her.

As we begin our healing process, we ask that you keep us in your thoughts and prayers! In her honor, please do all you can to make this world a better and happier place. 🙏

Peace and Love to You All!

The Briscoe Family

Tyrone, Tanya, Shirelle, Michele, Frederick, Lyndsay, and Sa'lia

The Young Sisters

Loretha, Iola, Althea, and Arameda

“ Dear Tyrone & Family: I was shocked and saddened by the news of Oceola's passing. (Thank you, though, for publishing her obit in the Washington Post; otherwise I wouldn't have known about her death.) I had the pleasure of working with "Ocee", as we called her, in the Bureau of Personnel Management Evaluation at the OPM in the late 1970's. She was a source of humor, encouragement and wisdom. She had a large reservoir of practical sense and subtle political caution in an environment full of white-collar snakes (career mid-level bureaucrats trying to climb the ladder). We had some enjoyable and memorable times together in the field on those personnel and EEO evaluations, particularly at the Government Printing Office in downtown DC and at one agency's regional office [USPS(?)] in blazing hot St. Louis. She loved her family and was always mentioning her "Tyrone". She greatly enriched my life and the lives of our co-workers. May the Creator grant her a fine place in His eternal kingdom! And may He comfort you in your great loss. Love, Hassan El-Amin, Retired Prince George's County Circuit Court Judge and former co-worker.
