

Ollie Mae Cooper

October 2, 1941 - November 20, 2014

Ollie Mae Cooper was born in Swansea, SC on October 2, 1941 to Theodora Wannamaker and the late Vandy Wannamaker, Jr. She had two sisters and one brother. She graduated from C.A. Johnson High School, class of 1961. She married the late George Edward Cooper in June of 1965, a marriage of 46 years which produced four children. She retired after many years of working for the Architect of the Capitol. On Thursday, November 20, 2014, she fell asleep in death due to complications from a stroke.

Ollie was a devoted wife, loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. But, above all that, she was a lover of Jehovah. She dedicated her life to her God, Jehovah, and symbolized it by water baptism in 1958. She served Jehovah faithfully for 56 years. She lived Acts 20:35 "There is more happiness in giving than there is in receiving." She would give her last and all to help others. To her family, friends, and anyone who knew her, 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 describes her best "Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous. It does not brag, does not get puffed up, does not behave indecently, does not look for its own interests, does not become provoked. It does not keep account of the injury. It does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." Ollie will truly be missed, especially for her delicious homemade rolls that everyone loved. She leaves to cherish her precious memory, her four children, Cynthia, Bernard, Patrick (Denise) and Beverly; three grandchildren, Brittany, Brandy, and Marquis; her mother, Theodora Wannamaker; two sisters, Ola and Carrie

(Floyd); one brother, Samuel (Saundrina) and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Ollie will be truly missed
