“ Mr. Jones, You have been a great example for me, the cause of many happy moments, and a constant source of inspiration. I am proud and lucky to have met you.

Most importantly, thank you for welcoming me to the family in your own special way... ;+ and sharing them with me especially Kwanza!. I know they are your pride, joy, and strength.

May God bless you in this next journey and say "hi" to the Big Guy upstairs for me. You will always be remembered...

Love,
Jose

PS - So many great memories - trips, Christmas dinners, Lucinda, etc. Btw, Mr. Jones, I still have that cow... ;+ See you at the beach, chicken farm, etc.

PSS - Love you, Kwanza. To the family from my favorite poet Yes, Meta, I used to read poetry...:

---- Soneto XCIV ----

*Si muero sobrev veme con tanta fuerza pura que despiertes la furia del p jildo y del fr o, de sur a sur levanta tus ojos indelebles,
de sol a sol que suene tu boca de guitarra.
No quiero que vacilen tu risa ni tus pasos,
no quiero que se muera mi herencia de alegr a,
no llames a mi pecho, estoy ausente.
Vive en mi ausencia como en una casa.
Es una casa tan grande la ausencia que pasar js en ella a trav s de los muros
y colgar js los cuadros en el aire.
Es una casa tan transparente la ausencia que yo sin vida te ver  vivir
y si sufres, mi amor, me morir  otra vez.*

“ O. Marion Jones - intelligent, bold, sharp-witted, steady, strong, suave, persevering, inspiring - a great father, grandfather, husband and friend - a warm and welcoming spirit. What an amazing life he has lived and legacy he created! You all make him proud.

We have so many fond memories of dinners shared, crispy chicken strips sneaked and holiday road trips gone awry : Daddy will be missed dearly but loved and respected ALWAYS. May God bless and keep him for all eternity. And may you all find comfort in knowing that he lived his life to the fullest and wanted the same for each of you. “ I send my deepest condolences to the Jones family.
I had the pleasure to meet Mr. Marion Jones, in Durham N.C. last year. The setting was a wonderful gathering of family and friends. I felt as if I were apart of the family because the Jones family has a way of making you feel that way instantly.
The moment I met Mr. Jones, he took one look at me and my hair and said; "Don't come no where near me with that hair..lol I see things falling from your hair..lol" All I could do was laugh. Mom was trying to stop him, but he was on a roll! lol He asked; "When was the last time you cut your hair? lol" I wasn't offended at all. I knew, this man was witty, funny and sharp as a whistle! So we laughed, and I was told by Mrs. Jones, that he liked me, other wise he would have had very little to say.
I encountered Mr. Jones a few times after that and he was very nice, even tho my hair was the same if not longer...lol
That was proof that he broke the ice hard and fast and meant no harm.
I had never been in the mist of someone who had lived a life as long and fulfilling as Mr. Marion Jones had.
With the knowledge I had of him from the many stories told to me by his loving daughter, Kwanza. Made me feel the utmost respect for Mr. Marion Jones.
I understood exactly why the entire Jones family, Kito, Kwanza, Meta and Mahiri are as loving, smart and witty as they are after meeting both Mr.and Mrs.Marion Jones.
I know he will be missed by all who loved and knew him, but he definitely left a legacy that will live on!
May God bless you all and comfort you thru this time.
Love,

“ Dear Jones Family, I would like to extend my sincere condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted personally, we share the pain of losing a dear loved one in death. May you find comfort in knowing that just as Jesus received power from his heavenly Father to raise back to life his close friend Lazarus John 11;43,44, he will soon use that same God-given power to resurrect our loved ones sleeping in the grave to live forever under peaceful conditions right here on earth. John 5;28,29; Rev. 21;3,4; Psalm 83;18 While grief at the loss of Marion is great, joy at receiving Marion in the resurrection will be greater. Mark 5;42 Please read God's thoughts and may you find peace in his loving promise of the resurrection during this difficult time and the days to come. “ Dear Kwanza and Mehta, Markita gave me the sad news. I never had a chance to meet your dad, but if his wonderful offspring are any indication, he must have been a truly exceptional man. Ever since I met you guys at Princeton, I've always been so impressed with just how accomplished, positive and joyful you guys are. No doubt your dad had something to do with that.
